Saturday, April 20, 2013 - Seminar includes a 100-minute workshop – Check-in: 9:00 AM Program: 9:30AM-12:00PM

Target audience:

Community Leaders, Executive Directors, Chairmen of Boards, Managers, Administrators, and Employees in Business, Government and/or Education

“Building Trust”

Building successful alliances requires trust. Without trust, every project takes longer and the organization suffers. Through this program, participants explore the essential ingredients for nurturing trust and a practical approach for rebuilding it when it has been broken

Community Trust | The more an organization or community cultivates a values-based culture in which its members make ethical decisions, the more that organization or community protects itself from the real and hidden costs of an ethical lapse or breach of trust.

Character First helps leaders talk about values and ethics in a positive, proactive, and practical way that benefits community members personally and professionally.

Learning Objectives:

- * Consider common causes of distrust and the components necessary for building trust.
- * Participate in a real-life case study that explores the process of building and re-building trust in a professional context.

“People of genius are admired, people of wealth are envied, people of power are feared; but only people of character are trusted.”
